

[EXCLUSIVE] ITALIANTOURS

Dear Friends, Family & Supporters,

Welcome to Exclusive Italian Tours our new luxury tour division!

This new website & brand represents well over a decade of unique private touring experiences with guests from around the world. It has been an absolute pleasure for us to design and operate world class holidays and corporate events for so many interesting, kind & talented people.

From our humble beginnings with five bikes operating out of my sisters garage (Grazie Lisa!), to where we are today, there have been so many special people who have helped us along just at the right time, times quite frankly when I thought to give up. But we stayed the course and we are excited for the future. We are proud of what this website says about us, our guests and our touring philosophy. There are just too many folks to properly thank individually but you know who you are.

We are so grateful for your support and friendship.

Regarding this website a huge Grazie Mille! to Giuditta and her team at Knuk Creative Factory for creating such a beautiful, rich web experience.

To my wife thank you for believing in my dreams and supporting my manic energy. This is for you and our beautiful Emma.

The 2013 season is now officially open!

Dominick Cerisano

Dom, Founder & C.C.O (Chief Cycling Officer)

P.S. For those who participated in the “Name Our Company” challenge it’s time for me to pay up, I will be in touch.

